

Independent Study Title: Academic Administration of Temple Charity Schools under Office of the Private Education Commission in Surin Province.

Name - Surname: Jitjunya Jaisawang      Identification: 63HB986057

Independent Study Advisor: Asst. Prof.Dr. Saksit Kattiyasuwan

Abstract

The objectives of this research were to study and compare academic administration temple charity private school in Surin under the Committee for the Promotion of Private Education by gender, position and work experience. The population used in the study was 53 personnel in a private charity school of a temple in Surin province. under the Office of the Private Education Commission in the academic year 2021. The instrument used for data collection was a 5 -level estimation scale questionnaire. The statistics used in the data analysis were percentage, mean, standard deviation. The hypothesis was tested by t-test and F - test. It was found that;

1) A Study of academic administration of private charity schools of temples in Surin Province under the Office of the Private Education Commission Office of Education, Surin Province Overall, the practice was at a high level. When considering each aspect, it was found that the academic administration in the development of learning process was practiced at the highest level. Secondly, educational supervision was practiced at a high level and educational guidance was minimal.

2) The comparison of opinions and recommendations on Academic Administration of Private Charity Schools Classified by Gender of Respondents, overall, the difference was statistically significant at the .05 level. When considering each aspect, it was found that the development of educational institutions, research to improve the quality of education and educational guidance, it was different statistically at the .05 level.