

independent Study Title Self – Responsibility of Lower Secondary School Students in basic Educational Institutions under the Secondary Educational Service Area Office Surin

Name – Surname Darusakorn Wongwong Identification 63HB986024

Independent Study Advisor Assoc Prof Dr.Supot Saeng-ngern

ABSTRACT

The purpose of this study was To study and compare the self-responsibility of junior high school students. Under the Surin Secondary Educational Service Area Office The sample used in the research were junior high school students. under the jurisdiction of the Secondary Education Service Area Office Surin, 360 people. Tools used to collect data. It was a 5-level estimation scale with a reliability of .94 for the entire issue. The statistics used in data analysis were frequency, percentage, arithmetic mean and standard deviation. The statistics used to test the hypothesis were t-test and F-test.

The research results found that

1. Self-responsibility of junior high school students Under the Surin Secondary Educational Service Area Office Overall and each aspect was at a high level. When considering each side, it was found that the side with the highest average was the assigned task, followed by the responsibility for one's own actions. The side with the lowest mean is Punctuality

2. The comparison of the self-responsibility of junior high school students Under the Surin Secondary Educational Service Area Office, classified by gender and classified by the grade level being studied, it was found that overall and each aspect was significantly different at the .05 level.